

Earplay new chamber music

November 30, 2012

Dear {FIRST_NAME},

Come join Earplay, together with Melody of China Friday, December 7th at 8 p.m. at the Old First Church in San Francisco.

A special repeat performance of Joan Huang's new Earplay commissioned work, Along the River During the Qingming Festival that premiered in May 2012 as part of the San Francisco International Arts Festival. Inspired by a Song Dynasty painting of the same title, Along the River portrays the festive spirit and worldly commotion at the ancient Qingming Festival. Melody of China and Earplay will perform this commissioned dramatic and colorful work offering a striking combination of Chinese and Western instruments. Also on the program is the world premiere of Standing at the Gate for Chinese sextet by young composer Eric Myers. The nation's leading Chinese ensemble with Earplay, a nationally recognized new music ensemble. An event not to be missed!
